WEDDED 50 YEARS

S. CORKEN AND WIFE HAVE LIVED HALF A CENTURY TOGETHER.

CAME HERE OVERLAND

They Were Boy and Girl Together Back in Ohio in Their School Days.

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Corken of Burlington Junction was on October 12, but it was not celebrated because they wished it not be. The following is from the Sunday's Gazette of the aged couple, which saw some of Nodaway county's most interesting history:

Samuel Corken was born near the little village of Londonderry, Ross county, O., October 3, 1837. Mrs. Corken's maiden name was Helen Westfall, and she was born in Richmondale, another Ohio village. Mr. and Mrs. Corken first became acquainted while attending the district school in Ross county.

In the summer of 1860 Samuel Corken contracted with Col. John H. Davis to drive twelve thoroughbred Durham cows from Ohio to the latter's farm in Nodaway county. The farm had been bought the year previous by Mr. Davis and was located where Burlington Junction now stands. Early in September Mr. Corken, in company with W. H. Davis, a son of Col. Davis, whose home is in Burlington Junction, started on the 800-mile trip. They had a team and wagon and were supplied with the necessary outfit for cooking and sleeping. They followed the old national highway through Ohio and Indiana. The night preceding the great Lincoln-Douglas debate they were camped five miles west of Indianapolis, and at intervals could hear the Lincoln Wideawakes and the Douglas Rangers traveling the road into Indianapolis. They amused themselves during the night by shouting at the parties. When a crowd of Douglas' followers would pass they would yell "Hurrah for Lincoln," and vice versa. Mr. Corken says that several times that night they were compelled to "back water" or they would have received a sound thrashing from one of the two factions.

After leaving Indiana the two travelers followed the old corduroy road through the Illinois swamps. This was the worst piece of road they encountered on their journey. Near Galesburg they visited Henry Corken, a brother of Samuel, and crossed the Mississippi river on a ferry at Burlington, Ia. In southern Iowa they visited with Steven Strong, an uncle of Mr. Davis, and it was at the Strong home that they were overtaken by Col. John H. Davis and family, who had started for Nodaway county with five covered wagons about September 27, 1860. With Mr. Davis and family were Helen Westfall and Sarah Corken, a sister of Sam Corken.

The party reached Nodaway county early in November. Mr. Corken and Mr. Davis had spent seven weeks and one day on the road, sleeping every night in the wagon and cooking their meals. Their long trip was without an accident, and the twelve head of fine cattle arrived here in good shape. These were the first thoroughbred cattle ever brought to this part of the country.

Col. Davis and family located on his farm here and Miss Sarah Corken returned to her home in Ohio the following spring. Miss Helen Westfall continued to make her home with the Davis family, and Samuel Corken was hired as a farm hand by Mr. Davis.

October 12, 1861, one year after arriving here, Samuel Corken and Miss Helen Westfall were united in marriage at the Col. Davis home, Rev. John Morehead, who was then a circuit rider here, officiating. The young couple made their home with Mr. Davis and wife until the following spring, when Mr. Corken, with his father, Thomas Corken, who had come from Ohio, bought the 180-acre farm near Burlington Junction, where Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Corken now live.

During the civil war Samuel Corken was not connected with the regular army, but was a member of the state volunteers, and saw a great deal of hard service in assisting the company to rid this part of the state of bushwhackers and guerrillas.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Corken still live on their old homestead, near Burlington Junction, and are enjoying excellent health.

Mr. and Mrs. Corken have eight living children: James S. Corken, Mrs. C. K. Allen, T. A. Corken, Mrs. W. C. Urban, R. D. Corken, E. E. Corken, Miss Nelle Corken and Miss Mabel Corken.

James S. Corken and T. A. Corken are prominent farmers and stock raisers here. R. D. Corken is manager of the Brown Hardware company at this place. E. E. Corken is a traveling salesman. Mrs. C. K. Allen lives in Evanston, Ill. Mrs. W. C. Urban's home is in Cameron and her husband is superintendent of the public schools there. Miss Nelle Corken is instructor in the conservatory of the Missouri Wesleyan college at Cameron. Miss Mabel Corken lives at home with her parents.

COLORS FOR CORN SHOW

Will Be Green, Yellow and White, and Merchants Are Requested to Decorate.

The colors for the corn growing and domestic science contests to be held the last of this week are green, yellow and white, and every merchant is urged to decorate their store windows for the event. The money for the premiums—$800 given by the merchants of the city—is being collected.

County Superintendent Oakerson has received 400 solid silver thimbles, which will be given to the entries in the domestic science contest, and 200 pocket knives, which will be given to the boys in the corn growing contest. Each one that enters in these contests will receive a gift. On the large blade of the knife is engraved "Corn Contest, Maryville, Mo."

The Evelyn Bargelt Company.

The Evelyn Bargelt Concert company needs no introduction to Maryville people, as Miss Bargelt is well and favorably known to most Chautauqua goers. She was a great favorite here, and will be remembered as the "chalk-talker" who pleased so much.

With Miss Bargelt are Miss Harter, Miss Bates and Mr. Benjamin, three musicians of great reputation, who are sure to please.

This is the second number on the course at the Business college, and it is under the management of the Redpath bureau, which is sufficient evidence of its superiority.

The Ladies Spanish orchestra gave universal satisfaction and was pronounced by critics as being one of the best ever heard in this city. The second number, on Thursday evening, Nov. 2, is as good in every respect as the first. The people of this town should see to it that such talent gets the patronage it deserves.

His Eye Badly Injured.

James Danner, a well known farmer living southwest of Maryville, in the Graham vicinity, met with a dangerous injury Friday afternoon that threatened the loss of one of his eyes. While leading his span of Texas ponies to water they became so frisky that he had to use his whip to keep them from running over him. The "cracker" on the whip flew off and struck Mr. Danner in one eye. The injury was so severe that Dr. F. R. Anthony, to whom Mr. Danner was brought by Mrs. Danner, thought on Saturday that it would be necessary to remove the eyeball in order to save the sight of the other eye. Mr. Danner is much better Monday, however, and his physician thinks he will not suffer the loss of the sight of either eye.

Cider Mill Does Big Business.

The "cider bug" has certainly struck Hopkins and the mill of W. E. White is kept busy manufacturing this popular beverage, says the St. Joseph Gazette. As many as twenty-five teams are frequently seen in line waiting their turn to reach the mill, and now many are coming with their apples the night before in order to be first in line the following morning. The capacity of the mill is 2,000 gallons a day, and as it has been in operation for thirty days, it means an output of sixty thousand gallons, or about three gallons for every man, woman and child in Nodaway county.

Cider apples wanted at the Burlington depot, Everhart scales. Twenty whisky barrels for sale at Gabe Allen's. V. E. Davis, at Braniger's store.

Two Surviving Sons Accompanied the Body Here—Had Lived in Utah for Two Years.

Arch McFadden of Kansas City, Kan., and his brother, Edward McFadden of Helper, Utah, arrived in Maryville Sunday night with the body of their father, John McFadden, who died at the home of his son in Utah Tuesday night, October 24. Mr. McFadden, Sr., had been a resident of Maryville for thirty years prior to his removal from Maryville two years ago, when he went to make his home with his sons, after the death of his wife, who died August 4, 1909.

The body was taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Woodard, on East Third street, where the funeral services were held Monday morning at 10 o'clock, by Rev. W. J. Parvin of the M. E. church, South. Burial took place in Oak Hill cemetery.

Mr. McFadden was born in Charleston, S. C., January 4, 1837. A year later he went with his parents to Harrodsburg, Ind., where he lived until 1866, when he came to Missouri with his wife. They settled in Nodaway county, in the Pickering neighborhood, and later moved to Maryville. Nine children were born to them, six of whom died in childhood. One daughter, Hattie, who was the wife of Charles Lee of Maryville, died several years ago. The two sons who accompanied the body to Maryville are the only surviving members of the family. Mr. McFadden had been in failing health all summer at the home of his son in Kansas City, and was taken to Utah ten days ago in the hope of improving. The cause of his death was heart disease. He had been a member of the M. E. church, South, for fifty years and was a devoted Christian man. His sons left for their homes Monday evening. Edward McFadden is cashier for the D. & R. G. railway and Wells-Fargo Express company at Helper.

NEW PASTOR INSTALLED.

Dr. A. P. Walton Takes Pulpit of Hopkins Church.

At the First Presbyterian church in Hopkins Friday night, Dr. A. P. Walton of Brooklyn, Ia., was formally installed as pastor of the church, a special commission of ministers delegated by the St. Joseph Presbytery being present to perform the installation ceremony. The Rev. A. D. Seelig of Grant City presided over the meeting, as well as preaching the sermon. He also delivered the charge to the people and propounded the constitutional questions. The Rev. E. C. Seabright of Stanberry delivered the charge to the pastor.

The Rev. Thomas C. Taylor, pastor of the Methodist church; Rev. Henry Baker, pastor of the Christian church, and the Rev. D. W. Griffith, pastor of the Baptist church, also took part in the services. Special music was a feature of the gathering. The Rev. John Moorhead of Baldwin, Kan., was among those from a distance present to witness the ceremonies.

While the membership of the Presbyterian church in Hopkins is not large, it is made up of a substantial and influential class of people, and the church edifice is among the finest in Northwest Missouri, having been built a few years ago at a cost of about $15,000.

ALL PROTESTANT CHURCHES IN CITY AT ONE SERVICE.

TO BID DR. LUCE FAREWELL

Pastors Had Parts in Worship—A Special Musical Program of Merit.

A magnificent audience, representing every church in our city, filled the First Presbyterian church to its utmost capacity Sunday night to hear Dr. Charles P. Luce in his last service as pastor of that church. All the Protestant churches had dismissed their services for the evening, and headed by their pastors, Rev. Lee Harrel of the First Baptist church, Rev. W. J. Parvin of the M. E. church, South, Dr. J. S. Ford of the First M. E. church and Rev. Claude J. Miller of the First Christian church, went to worship with their Presbyterian brethren. Many people were unable to gain entrance to the church.

An appropriate program of music was given by the Presbyterian choir that alone was sufficient for a service of worship. The choir soloist, Miss Mildred Morrison, was at her best and gave three excellent numbers, and her solo following the sermon, "Never Mind the Sorrows and the Sighs," by Cowles, was especially appropriate and effective. Mr. W. H. Crawford's solo, "The Lord is My Helper," was as well done as any he has sung in Maryville, and he is one of our appreciated singers. The members of the choir are all trained singers and include Miss Morrison, Mr. Crawford, Mr. F. M. Petty, Mr. Fred Lewis, Mrs. C. D. Leffler, Miss Helen Leffler, Miss Lillian Lindholm and Mrs. Eaton.

After the Scripture reading, the 13th chapter of II Corinthians, by the pastor, Dr. Luce, Dr. J. S. Ford led the prayer. The short sermon by the pastor was based on his comments during the Scripture lesson, the meaning of the word "charity" used by the Apostle Paul being given as that human feeling touched by the spirit of God shown by Paul throughout his life, and proves always the very flower of Christian faith.

A SUGGESTION FROM ILLINOIS.

(From the Quincy (Ill.) Journal)

The Mississippi river separates Missouri and Illinois in a physical sense only, not in a commercial way, not in a social way, not in a neighborly way, not in a spiritual way, not in a political way. Missourians and Illinoisans are friends and neighbors and brothers just as much as if no river divided the two states. We Democrats in Illinois are as much interested in the honor and success of Missouri Democrats as the Democrats of Missouri are. For instance, we Democrats in Illinois love and honor Champ Clark as do the Democratis of Missouri; and we are as jealous of his honor and as desirous of his success as are the Democrats of Missouri.

As we see it, Champ Clark needs only one thing in order to receive a nomination and an election to the presidency, and that one thing is the united, enthusiastic, loyal support of the Democrats of Missouri.

There is no doubt that Mr. Clark has the call today over any other man for the Democratic presidential nomination. Every test poll that has thus far been taken proves this to be so.

Champ Clark is one of the ablest, he is one of the wisest, one of the most tactful and one of the most influential speakers of the house of representatives that this country has ever seen. We much doubt if any other has ever occupied that position who was such a masterful leader of men as is Champ Clark. And Champ Clark would make as great a president as he is speaker of the house. Champ Clark has presidential timber in every fiber of his being.

Missourians are proud of Champ Clark, as well they may be; but not any prouder of him than we are in Illinois. Champ Clark is as much our congressman as he is Missouri's; as much our speaker of the house as he is Missouri's. Champ Clark no longer belongs to a state alone—he belongs to the nation.

Missouri has an ostensible candidate for the presidency in the person of Joseph Wingate Folk. Against Mr. Folk we would not utter a single word—for he must be a good man, otherwise Missouri Democrats would not have indorsed him for the presidency. But, as a matter of fact, Mr. Folk is not in the running at this time, and no one knows this better than do Missouri Democrats. And these Democrats know just as well that Champ Clark is distinctly in the running. They know perfectly well that today Champ Clark has the call on the presidential nomination.

Now then, inasmuch as Mr. Folk has no show at all for the nomination, and as Champ Clark has the best show of any man in the country, is it not the part of wisdom for Missouri Democrats to get under Champ Clark and lift every ounce they can for him? And if they will do this, we have not the slightest doubt that Champ Clark will be the next president of the United States.

By longer standing by Mr. Folk Missouri Democrats are frittering away their influence and losing the best chance they have ever had to promote a worthy son of Missouri.

Nor should the Democrats of Missouri delay action in this matter. Time is passing, and the sooner they get under Mr. Clark the better it will be for him and for them, too.

We sincerely hope that the Democrats of Missouri will take up this matter and deal with it in a way that will redound to the benefit and the glory of the Democracy of the nation.

We make this suggestion in the interest of the Democracy of the nation. We greatly wish to see a Democrat elected to the presidency next year, and the plan here outlined looks to us to be the surest way to achieve that end.

A NEW BRIDGE ON WABASH.

Work Commenced on Overhead Bridge on State Road East of Maryville.

Work was commenced last week on the new bridge for the Wabash on the state road east of Maryville. The bridge is to be a concrete one. The Wabash track is to be lowered about two feet on the grade coming to Maryville, and on this account the road leading under the bridge is to be cut down two feet. The bridge will have an opening of twenty feet for passers.

Several of the farmers on the state road are very much opposed to the cutting down of the road under the bridge two feet, as the say the place will always be a mudhole. Another objection seems to be that the opening should at least be thirty feet, and that the bridge should be made higher so as to let wagons with hay have room to come under the bridge.

TRIED TO KILL WHOLE FAMILY

Railroad Man Shoots Three Relatives, Killing One, Then Suicides.

TRAGEDY OVER DIVORCE SUIT

Was to Have Been Tried for Conspiracy to Defraud Express Company—Spared His Four-Year-Old Daughter.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Oct. 30.—Carrol L. James, a railroad conductor of this city, shot and killed his father-in-law, William Pritchard; probably fatally wounded his mother-in-law, slightly injured his wife and committed suicide at Pennsboro. James broke into the pritchard home and caught his victims while they slept. He made no effort to harm his four-year-old daughter, who occupied the bed with her mother and grandmother.

The tragedy follows a series of sensational occurrences in this city, beginning six weeks ago when James shot Seymour Kuhn of Fairmont, W. Va., a fellow railroader, who he alleged he had found with his wife at the James home. Kuhn's injury was slight. James brought suit for divorce and Mrs. James brought a counter suit. During the taking of depositions in the suits last week Mrs. James gave evidence which resulted in the arrest two days later of her husband and George Mitter of Grafton, W. Va., an express messenger, on the charge of conspiracy to defraud the United States Express company.

James was to have received a preliminary hearing next Tuesday on the conspiracy charge. It is said that he worried greatly over the matter and was much embittered against his wife and her family. It is alleged that he threatened he would "kill the whole Pritchard tribe" and the shooting was an apparent effort to fulfill his threat.

James quietly forced his way into the Pritchard home at Pennsboro before daybreak. Going to the second floor, he entered the room occupied by his wife, young daughter and his mother-in-law. Without words he began firing. The shots were directed at the women. One bullet struck Mrs. Pritchard in the arm and another hit Mrs. James in the hip. James then stepped into the next bedroom and saw his father-in-law rising from his bed. He fired directly into Mr. Pritchard's face. The ball passed through the mouth, killing him instantly. Returning to the other room, James shot his mother-in-law. Twice more he shot her, the bullets lodging in her left foot and right arm.

James then went in pursuit of his wife. An open rear door indicated the direction she had taken from the house. He had two revolvers and pulled the triggers of each in an attempt to kill her. The cylinders were empty. Placing the revolvers in his pocket he caught her by the throat and choked her.

As the woman sank to the ground, her young child holding to her skirts, crying, James beat and kicked her and fled only at the approach of a neighbor who heard the child's cries.

James ran back to the Pritchard home. There he re-loaded one of the revolvers and killed himself.

MISSIONARY FUND CAUSING TROUBLE

Charters May Be Taken Away From Two Kansas Societies.

SUIT FILED ALLEGING FRAUD

Wichita Meeting Brought Attention of Attorney General to Matter and Action to Forfeit Charter Was Result.

Topeka, Oct. 30.—Attorney General John S. Dawson has filed quo warranto proceedings in the supreme court to take the charters away from the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Kansas conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, and the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church of the Kansas conference, and asks that they be ousted from the state. The petition is filed because of alleged fraud on the part of the societies.

For a quarter of a centry an unincorporated society known as the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church of the Kansas conference has operated in this state, collecting certain moneys to distribute among the needy and for the furtherance of religious enterprises in this state. It was a branch of a national organization.

Among the large contributors to the Kansas branch was Mrs. Fanni Murray of Lancaster. During her life she gave hundreds of dollars to the Kansas society. About a year before her death, Mrs. Murray executed a deed of trust concerning her property, and provided therein for an equal division of her property between the Woman's Home Missionary societies. However, before this money was finally disposed of according to Attorney General Dawson Mrs. F. N. Lynch, Mrs. Carrie Cope Mrs. E. L. Barnes, Mrs. George O Smith and Mrs. W. J. Oliver, all prominent club and society women of this city, organized a missionary society known as the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church of the Kansas conference This was on January 29, 1908.

The attorney general asserts that this company was organized in order to secure a charter, thus giving it a right to the funds left to the unincorporated society.

The Woman's Home Missionary society has had considerable experience in legal matters lately, and in dealing with state officials. It was during his address before the national convention of this society that Gov Stubbs was hissed recently in Wichita. It was an intra-society row that caused the filing of a $50,000 libel suit recently by Mrs. Cope, one member, against Mrs. Robinson, another member and the wife of a Detroit millionaire. And it is out of society troubles that this ouster suit comes inasmuch as the recent Wichita meeting brought the matter to Attorney General Dawson's attention. It is considered in Topeka as decidedly the big scandal of the season and the trial may bring to light a lot of interesting things.

MR. MORGAN IS HIGHLY INSULTED

New York, Oct. 30.—It was that defiant note of refusal to reorganize the United States Steel corporation that J. Pierpont Morgan signed a month ago that caused the administration to move against that corporation.

Ever since the supreme court handed down the Standard Oil and tobacco decisions, it is said, the president has been waiting for the United States Steel corporation to show some sign of moving in compliance with the new interpretation of the Sherman law. Nothing happened in that direction, and Mr. Taft then ordered the department of justice to proceed with a suit praying for immediate dissolution of the trust.

It is said in Wall street that Morgan is highly indignant over the proceedings of the last few days. A man very close to him is quoted as saying:

"I have never seen Mr. Morgan so indignant as he is now over this steel suit. He is in a perfect rage. He feels that the allegations made in the bill are gratuitous insults directed at him personally. He feels that Mr Wickersham went out of his way to attempt to besmirch his character."

RESTORE GRAY HAIR TO NATURAL COLOR

By Common Garden Sage, a Simple Remedy for Dandruff, Falling, Faded, Gray Hair.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of 75, while our mothers have white hair before they are 50. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy, and gradually restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days, on account of souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulhpur Hair Remedy the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair, but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow.

Get a bottle from your druggist today. Use it and see for yourself how quickly dandruff goes and gray hairs vanish.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agents, Koch Pharmacy.

the churches it seemed to be the object of each to pull down and hinder in every possible way the cherished beliefs and work of those differing in articles of faith. But down the years the spirit of the Lord Jesus Christ is so permeating the hearts of all who profess to love Him that it is now true that every church is helping every other church to accomplish its cherished plans and purposes.

Jesus is our example for daily living, in our church life and our daily personal affairs. He is our pattern. We do not find the exact copy of this perfect pattern in any one person or church, but parts of it are so well shown in characteristics of each that the nature and quality of the whole is clearly seen in the world and the will of God is being done.

How to Tell a Girl's Age.

Girls of a marriageable age do not like to tell how old they are; but you can find out by following the subjoined instructions, the young lady doing the figuring: Tell her to put down the number of the month in which she was born, then to multiply it by 2, then add 5, then to multiply it by 50, then to add her age, then to subtract 365, then to add 115, then to tell you the amount she has left. The two figures to the right will tell you her age, and the remainder the month of her birth. For example, the amount is 822; she is 22 years old and was born in the eighth month (August). Try it.

Just as bad in the morning.

Know they cure backache—cure every kidney ill?
If you don't, some Maryville people do.

Read a case of it:

J. A. Murphy, East Fourth street, Maryville, Mo., says: "I suffered considerably from kidney and bladder trouble. In the morning upon arising my back was weak and stiff and there was a dull ache in my loins which at times handicapped me in doin gmy work. Whenever I caught cold it settled in my kidneys, and at such times the kidney secretions became unnatural. I was run down in health when I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a supply at Charles A. Love's drug store. Soon after beginning their use I found relief, and I am now free from kidney trouble. I occasionally take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills, finding that they serve to keep my kidneys in a normal condition."

TIME FOR TAFT TO SPEAK.

President Should Let Business World Know What It Has to Expect From Government.

"Nothing is more unfortunate for business than an air of mystery involving the purposes of the government in relation to it," says The Munsey editorially. "President Taft, or his attorney general, ought to take the country into their confidence, and let it know just as nearly as may be what it has to expect from them.

"When the Standard Oil and tobacco trust decisions were being awaited by the country, business was depressed because of uncertainty. When these decisions came, although they were antagonistic to the corporations involved, every index of business tendency showed a buoyant disposition. Anything was better than uncertainty.

"To sleuth around with an impressive aspect of mystery, administering ten parts of scare to one part of punishment, is about the worst thing that could happen. Business is no criminal, even if there are some criminals in business. Business ought not to be destroyed in the hope of catching the malefactors in the wreckage.

PANIC PREVAILS AMONG MANCHUS

People Leaving Chinese Capital in Droves, Fearing Massacre.

AMERICANS REPORTED WOUNDED

Legation Orders Women and Children to the Coast—Price of Provisions Still Rising—Situation Critical.

Pekin, Oct. 30.—The situation in Pekin is becoming worse. A panic prevails among the Manchus. The Manchu women are adopting Chinese dress. Some of them are attempting to make their feet appear smaller by peculiarly constructed shoes. The trains that are leaving the capital are drawn by two engines, so heavily are they loaded. The people sit on top of their household belongings. Officials are seeking asylum for their wives and children among the foreigners.

Prior to the revolution the newspapers frequently cried out against the presence of foreign soldiers. But the natives now are fleeing to them for shelter.

The danger is from a sudden attack against the throne or against the officials that might precipitate the threatened massacre by the Manchus. Race feeling is becoming intensified.

The price of provisions still is rising. A large number of foreigners are entering the legation quarter. The legation guards are preparing for emergencies. The Americans have sandbags piled on the corner wall, which is now under a strong guard. Movements of the Manchu troops through the city gates occur silently after nightfall to prevent excitement among the population.

The American legation has issued orders that the women and children living along the Pekin-Hankow railway and also in the country to the west of the line shall proceed as soon as possible to the coast. The American consul general at Hankow, Roger S. Greene, reports that an American, A. H. Kepler, has been wounded in the fighting around that city.

Dr. Jackson, the American president of Boone university of Wu Chang, was wounded in the recent fighting at Hankow. The insurgents are spending money freely, having sold all the government supplies at ridiculously low prices.

Consular reports from Nanking are pessimistic. The new troops fear an attack by the old troops and art clamoring for ammunition, which the viceroy refuses to give them. They were ordered to leave the city, but declined. The viceroy of Kiang Su has chartered the British steamer Pei Ching, which lies in the river, presumably to take the viceroy if necessary.

Six thousand of the Twentieth division at Lan Chau have refused to entrain for Hankow. Instead they sent a memorial to Pekin asking for the immediate granting of a constitution.

On the last vote the jury stood 11 for conviction and one for acquittal.

FINDS WORK FOR THE NEEDY

STATE AGENCY FINDS PLACES FOR THOUSANDS.

Missouri Law May be Changed to Establish Other Free Employment Bureaus.

Jefferson City, Oct. 30.—What Missouri is doing for its unemployed is set forth in a bulletin just issued by Austin W. Biggs, commissioner of the state bureau of labor statistics. The bulletin is a statement of the work of the free employment bureaus in St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph from June 16, 1911, the date upon which the present commissioner took charge of the labor bureau, to September 30, the end of the fiscal year.

According to reports made by J. T. Smith, superintendent of the St. Louis free employment office, C. J. Tompkins, superintendent of the Kansas City office and Jesse E. Heiser, superintendent of the St. Joseph office, employment was furnished to 3,144 persons, of whom 2,775 were men and 369 women. Not one cent was paid out by any person for whom a position was secured. The state finds the cost of maintaining the free employment offices to be money well spent.

There were applications for 4,710 men and 639 women. As a rule the class of applicants for work was of a high order.

So successful has been the work of the free employment bureau in St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph that Commissioner Biggs is anxious that the law be changed to permit the bureau of labor statistics to establish free employment offices in Springfield, Hannibal, Joplin, Sedalia and other large manufacturing towns of the state. He believes that the money necessary to maintain these offices would well repay Missouri in the good it would do in getting work for the thousands of workers who are unemployed from time to time and who are desirous of remaining in the state.

VILES LEAVES CENSUS BUREAU

Notoriety Gained by Missourian Over Second Marriage Causes His Resignation.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Secretary Nagel of the department of commerce and labor has accepted the resignation of Voler V. Viles, a Missourian, as chief clerk of the census bureau, to take effect immediately. William A. Hathaway expert chief of the agricultural division of the bureau, will take the place of Mr. Viles, and William J. Barrows, also a Missourian, will succeed Mr. Hathaway.

The resignation of Mr. Viles was formal and brief but no more so than was Mr. White's acceptance. No reason is announced, but it is known that Mr. Viles' position had become unbearable to him on account of the notoriety he gained last spring when he married Mrs. Beulah Padden at Springfield, Mo. Mrs. Padden was a hotel waitress. She first met her husband when he went to his home near Springfield with the body of his dead wife. They were married a few days later.

A Columbia Bank Airing.

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 30.—The failure of the Columbia Bank and Trust company for $1,000,000 at Oklahoma City two years ago reached the United States circuit court here through a transfer to this court from the district court at Oklahoma City of the case of State Bank Commissioner J. D. Lankford, representing the state banking board, against E. J. Maire of Lima, O. Lankford has sued Maire for $2,500, asserting that when the Columbia failed he was a stockholder to that extent in the bank.

WEDDED 50 YEARS

S. CORKEN AND WIFE HAVE LIVED HALF A CENTURY TOGETHER.

CAME HERE OVERLAND

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Corken of Burlington Junction was on October 12, but it was not celebrated because they wished it not be. The following is from the Sunday's Gazette of the aged couple, which saw some of Nodaway county's most interesting history:

Samuel Corken was born near the little village of Londonderry, Ross county, O., October 3, 1837. Mrs. Corken's maiden name was Helen Westfall, and she was born in Richmondale, another Ohio village. Mr. and Mrs. Corken first became acquainted while attending the district school in Ross county.

In the summer of 1860 Samuel Corken contracted with Col. John H. Davis to drive twelve thoroughbred Durham cows from Ohio to the latter's farm in Nodaway county. The farm had been bought the year previous by Mr. Davis and was located where Burlington Junction now stands. Early in September Mr. Corken, in company with W. H. Davis, a son of Col. Davis, whose home is in Burlington Junction, started on the 800-mile trip. They had a team and wagon and were supplied with the necessary outfit for cooking and sleeping. They followed the old national highway through Ohio and Indiana. The night preceding the great Lincoln-Douglas debate they were camped five miles west of Indianapolis, and at intervals could hear the Lincoln Wideawakes and the Douglas Rangers traveling the road into Indianapolis. They amused themselves during the night by shouting at the parties. When a crowd of Douglas' followers would pass they would yell "Hurrah for Lincoln," and vice versa. Mr. Corken says that several times that night they were compelled to "back water" or they would have received a sound thrashing from one of the two factions.

After leaving Indiana the two travelers followed the old corduroy road through the Illinois swamps. This was the worst piece of road they encountered on their journey. Near Galesburg they visited Henry Corken, a brother of Samuel, and crossed the Mississippi river on a ferry at Burlington, Ia. In southern Iowa they visited with Steven Strong, an uncle of Mr. Davis, and it was at the Strong home that they were overtaken by Col. John H. Davis and family, who had started for Nodaway county with five covered wagons about September 27, 1860. With Mr. Davis and family were Helen Westfall and Sarah Corken, a sister of Sam Corken.

The party reached Nodaway county early in November. Mr. Corken and Mr. Davis had spent seven weeks and one day on the road, sleeping every night in the wagon and cooking their meals. Their long trip was without an accident, and the twelve head of fine cattle arrived here in good shape. These were the first thoroughbred cattle ever brought to this part of the country.

Col. Davis and family located on his farm here and Miss Sarah Corken returned to her home in Ohio the following spring. Miss Helen Westfall continued to make her home with the Davis family, and Samuel Corken was hired as a farm hand by Mr. Davis.

October 12, 1861, one year after arriving here, Samuel Corken and Miss Helen Westfall were united in marriage at the Col. Davis home, Rev. John Morehead, who was then a circuit rider here, officiating. The young couple made their home with Mr. Davis and wife until the following spring, when Mr. Corken, with his father, Thomas Corken, who had come from Ohio, bought the 180-acre farm near Burlington Junction, where Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Corken now live.

During the civil war Samuel Corken was not connected with the regular army, but was a member of the state volunteers, and saw a great deal of hard service in assisting the company to rid this part of the state of bushwhackers and guerrillas.

Mr. and Mrs. Corken have eight living children: James S. Corken, Mrs. C. K. Allen, T. A. Corken, Mrs. W. C. Urban, R. D. Corken, E. E. Corken, Miss Nelle Corken and Miss Mabel Corken.

James S. Corken and T. A. Corken are prominent farmers and stock raisers here. R. D. Corken is manager of the Brown Hardware company at this place. E. E. Corken is a traveling salesman. Mrs. C. K. Allen lives in Evanston, Ill. Mrs. W. C. Urban's home is in Cameron and her husband is superintendent of the public schools there. Miss Nelle Corken is instructor in the conservatory of the Missouri Wesleyan college at Cameron. Miss Mabel Corken lives at home with her parents.

COLORS FOR CORN SHOW

The colors for the corn growing and domestic science contests to be held the last of this week are green, yellow and white, and every merchant is urged to decorate their store windows for the event. The money for the premiums—$800 given by the merchants of the city—is being collected.

County Superintendent Oakerson has received 400 solid silver thimbles, which will be given to the entries in the domestic science contest, and 200 pocket knives, which will be given to the boys in the corn growing contest. Each one that enters in these contests will receive a gift. On the large blade of the knife is engraved "Corn Contest, Maryville, Mo."

The Evelyn Bargelt Company.

The Evelyn Bargelt Concert company needs no introduction to Maryville people, as Miss Bargelt is well and favorably known to most Chautauqua goers. She was a great favorite here, and will be remembered as the "chalk-talker" who pleased so much.

With Miss Bargelt are Miss Harter, Miss Bates and Mr. Benjamin, three musicians of great reputation, who are sure to please.

This is the second number on the course at the Business college, and it is under the management of the Redpath bureau, which is sufficient evidence of its superiority.

The Ladies Spanish orchestra gave universal satisfaction and was pronounced by critics as being one of the best ever heard in this city. The second number, on Thursday evening, Nov. 2, is as good in every respect as the first. The people of this town should see to it that such talent gets the patronage it deserves.

His Eye Badly Injured.

James Danner, a well known farmer living southwest of Maryville, in the Graham vicinity, met with a dangerous injury Friday afternoon that threatened the loss of one of his eyes. While leading his span of Texas ponies to water they became so frisky that he had to use his whip to keep them from running over him. The "cracker" on the whip flew off and struck Mr. Danner in one eye. The injury was so severe that Dr. F. R. Anthony, to whom Mr. Danner was brought by Mrs. Danner, thought on Saturday that it would be necessary to remove the eyeball in order to save the sight of the other eye. Mr. Danner is much better Monday, however, and his physician thinks he will not suffer the loss of the sight of either eye.

Cider Mill Does Big Business.

The "cider bug" has certainly struck Hopkins and the mill of W. E. White is kept busy manufacturing this popular beverage, says the St. Joseph Gazette. As many as twenty-five teams are frequently seen in line waiting their turn to reach the mill, and now many are coming with their apples the night before in order to be first in line the following morning. The capacity of the mill is 2,000 gallons a day, and as it has been in operation for thirty days, it means an output of sixty thousand gallons, or about three gallons for every man, woman and child in Nodaway county.

Cider apples wanted at the Burlington depot, Everhart scales. Twenty whisky barrels for sale at Gabe Allen's. V. E. Davis, at Braniger's store.

Arch McFadden of Kansas City, Kan., and his brother, Edward McFadden of Helper, Utah, arrived in Maryville Sunday night with the body of their father, John McFadden, who died at the home of his son in Utah Tuesday night, October 24. Mr. McFadden, Sr., had been a resident of Maryville for thirty years prior to his removal from Maryville two years ago, when he went to make his home with his sons, after the death of his wife, who died August 4, 1909.

The body was taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Woodard, on East Third street, where the funeral services were held Monday morning at 10 o'clock, by Rev. W. J. Parvin of the M. E. church, South. Burial took place in Oak Hill cemetery.

Mr. McFadden was born in Charleston, S. C., January 4, 1837. A year later he went with his parents to Harrodsburg, Ind., where he lived until 1866, when he came to Missouri with his wife. They settled in Nodaway county, in the Pickering neighborhood, and later moved to Maryville. Nine children were born to them, six of whom died in childhood. One daughter, Hattie, who was the wife of Charles Lee of Maryville, died several years ago. The two sons who accompanied the body to Maryville are the only surviving members of the family. Mr. McFadden had been in failing health all summer at the home of his son in Kansas City, and was taken to Utah ten days ago in the hope of improving. The cause of his death was heart disease. He had been a member of the M. E. church, South, for fifty years and was a devoted Christian man. His sons left for their homes Monday evening. Edward McFadden is cashier for the D. & R. G. railway and Wells-Fargo Express company at Helper.

NEW PASTOR INSTALLED.

Dr. A. P. Walton Takes Pulpit of Hopkins Church.

At the First Presbyterian church in Hopkins Friday night, Dr. A. P. Walton of Brooklyn, Ia., was formally installed as pastor of the church, a special commission of ministers delegated by the St. Joseph Presbytery being present to perform the installation ceremony. The Rev. A. D. Seelig of Grant City presided over the meeting, as well as preaching the sermon. He also delivered the charge to the people and propounded the constitutional questions. The Rev. E. C. Seabright of Stanberry delivered the charge to the pastor.

The Rev. Thomas C. Taylor, pastor of the Methodist church; Rev. Henry Baker, pastor of the Christian church, and the Rev. D. W. Griffith, pastor of the Baptist church, also took part in the services. Special music was a feature of the gathering. The Rev. John Moorhead of Baldwin, Kan., was among those from a distance present to witness the ceremonies.

While the membership of the Presbyterian church in Hopkins is not large, it is made up of a substantial and influential class of people, and the church edifice is among the finest in Northwest Missouri, having been built a few years ago at a cost of about $15,000.

ALL PROTESTANT CHURCHES IN CITY AT ONE SERVICE.

TO BID DR. LUCE FAREWELL

Pastors Had Parts in Worship—A Special Musical Program of Merit.

A magnificent audience, representing every church in our city, filled the First Presbyterian church to its utmost capacity Sunday night to hear Dr. Charles P. Luce in his last service as pastor of that church. All the Protestant churches had dismissed their services for the evening, and headed by their pastors, Rev. Lee Harrel of the First Baptist church, Rev. W. J. Parvin of the M. E. church, South, Dr. J. S. Ford of the First M. E. church and Rev. Claude J. Miller of the First Christian church, went to worship with their Presbyterian brethren. Many people were unable to gain entrance to the church.

An appropriate program of music was given by the Presbyterian choir that alone was sufficient for a service of worship. The choir soloist, Miss Mildred Morrison, was at her best and gave three excellent numbers, and her solo following the sermon, "Never Mind the Sorrows and the Sighs," by Cowles, was especially appropriate and effective. Mr. W. H. Crawford's solo, "The Lord is My Helper," was as well done as any he has sung in Maryville, and he is one of our appreciated singers. The members of the choir are all trained singers and include Miss Morrison, Mr. Crawford, Mr. F. M. Petty, Mr. Fred Lewis, Mrs. C. D. Leffler, Miss Helen Leffler, Miss Lillian Lindholm and Mrs. Eaton.

After the Scripture reading, the 13th chapter of II Corinthians, by the pastor, Dr. Luce, Dr. J. S. Ford led the prayer. The short sermon by the pastor was based on his comments during the Scripture lesson, the meaning of the word "charity" used by the Apostle Paul being given as that human feeling touched by the spirit of God shown by Paul throughout his life, and proves always the very flower of Christian faith.

He said that in the early history of

A SUGGESTION FROM ILLINOIS.

(From the Quincy (Ill.) Journal)

The Mississippi river separates Missouri and Illinois in a physical sense only, not in a commercial way, not in a social way, not in a neighborly way, not in a spiritual way, not in a political way. Missourians and Illinoisans are friends and neighbors and brothers just as much as if no river divided the two states. We Democrats in Illinois are as much interested in the honor and success of Missouri Democrats as the Democrats of Missouri are. For instance, we Democrats in Illinois love and honor Champ Clark as do the Democratis of Missouri; and we are as jealous of his honor and as desirous of his success as are the Democrats of Missouri.

As we see it, Champ Clark needs only one thing in order to receive a nomination and an election to the presidency, and that one thing is the united, enthusiastic, loyal support of the Democrats of Missouri.

There is no doubt that Mr. Clark has the call today over any other man for the Democratic presidential nomination. Every test poll that has thus far been taken proves this to be so.

Champ Clark is one of the ablest, he is one of the wisest, one of the most tactful and one of the most influential speakers of the house of representatives that this country has ever seen. We much doubt if any other has ever occupied that position who was such a masterful leader of men as is Champ Clark. And Champ Clark would make as great a president as he is speaker of the house. Champ Clark has presidential timber in every fiber of his being.

Missourians are proud of Champ Clark, as well they may be; but not any prouder of him than we are in Illinois. Champ Clark is as much our congressman as he is Missouri's; as much our speaker of the house as he is Missouri's. Champ Clark no longer belongs to a state alone—he belongs to the nation.

Missouri has an ostensible candidate for the presidency in the person of Joseph Wingate Folk. Against Mr. Folk we would not utter a single word—for he must be a good man, otherwise Missouri Democrats would not have indorsed him for the presidency. But, as a matter of fact, Mr. Folk is not in the running at this time, and no one knows this better than do Missouri Democrats. And these Democrats know just as well that Champ Clark is distinctly in the running. They know perfectly well that today Champ Clark has the call on the presidential nomination.

Now then, inasmuch as Mr. Folk has no show at all for the nomination, and as Champ Clark has the best show of any man in the country, is it not the part of wisdom for Missouri Democrats to get under Champ Clark and lift every ounce they can for him? And if they will do this, we have not the slightest doubt that Champ Clark will be the next president of the United States.

By longer standing by Mr. Folk Missouri Democrats are frittering away their influence and losing the best chance they have ever had to promote a worthy son of Missouri.

Nor should the Democrats of Missouri delay action in this matter. Time is passing, and the sooner they get under Mr. Clark the better it will be for him and for them, too.

We sincerely hope that the Democrats of Missouri will take up this matter and deal with it in a way that will redound to the benefit and the glory of the Democracy of the nation.

We make this suggestion in the interest of the Democracy of the nation. We greatly wish to see a Democrat elected to the presidency next year, and the plan here outlined looks to us to be the surest way to achieve that end.

A NEW BRIDGE ON WABASH.

Work Commenced on Overhead Bridge on State Road East of Maryville.

Work was commenced last week on the new bridge for the Wabash on the state road east of Maryville. The bridge is to be a concrete one. The Wabash track is to be lowered about two feet on the grade coming to Maryville, and on this account the road leading under the bridge is to be cut down two feet. The bridge will have an opening of twenty feet for passers.

Several of the farmers on the state road are very much opposed to the cutting down of the road under the bridge two feet, as the say the place will always be a mudhole. Another objection seems to be that the opening should at least be thirty feet, and that the bridge should be made higher so as to let wagons with hay have room to come under the bridge.

TRIED TO KILL WHOLE FAMILY

Railroad Man Shoots Three Relatives, Killing One, Then Suicides.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Oct. 30.—Carrol L. James, a railroad conductor of this city, shot and killed his father-in-law, William Pritchard; probably fatally wounded his mother-in-law, slightly injured his wife and committed suicide at Pennsboro. James broke into the pritchard home and caught his victims while they slept. He made no effort to harm his four-year-old daughter, who occupied the bed with her mother and grandmother.

The tragedy follows a series of sensational occurrences in this city, beginning six weeks ago when James shot Seymour Kuhn of Fairmont, W. Va., a fellow railroader, who he alleged he had found with his wife at the James home. Kuhn's injury was slight. James brought suit for divorce and Mrs. James brought a counter suit. During the taking of depositions in the suits last week Mrs. James gave evidence which resulted in the arrest two days later of her husband and George Mitter of Grafton, W. Va., an express messenger, on the charge of conspiracy to defraud the United States Express company.

James was to have received a preliminary hearing next Tuesday on the conspiracy charge. It is said that he worried greatly over the matter and was much embittered against his wife and her family. It is alleged that he threatened he would "kill the whole Pritchard tribe" and the shooting was an apparent effort to fulfill his threat.

James quietly forced his way into the Pritchard home at Pennsboro before daybreak. Going to the second floor, he entered the room occupied by his wife, young daughter and his mother-in-law. Without words he began firing. The shots were directed at the women. One bullet struck Mrs. Pritchard in the arm and another hit Mrs. James in the hip. James then stepped into the next bedroom and saw his father-in-law rising from his bed. He fired directly into Mr. Pritchard's face. The ball passed through the mouth, killing him instantly. Returning to the other room. James shot his mother-in-law. Twice more he shot her, the bullets lodging in her left foot and right arm.

James then went in pursuit of his wife. An open rear door indicated the direction she had taken from the house. He had two revolvers and pulled the triggers of each in an attempt to kill her. The cylinders were empty. Placing the revolvers in his pocket he caught her by the throat and choked her.

As the woman sank to the ground, her young child holding to her skirts, crying, James beat and kicked her and fled only at the approach of a neighbor who heard the child's cries.

James ran back to the Pritchard home. There he re-loaded one of the revolvers and killed himself.

MISSIONARY FUND CAUSING TROUBLE

SUIT FILED ALLEGING FRAUD

Wichita Meeting Brought Attention of Attorney General to Matter and Action to Forfeit Charter Was Result.

Topeka, Oct. 30.—Attorney General John S. Dawson has filed quo warranto proceedings in the supreme court to take the charters away from the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Kansas conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, and the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church of the Kansas conference, and asks that they be ousted from the state. The petition is filed because of alleged fraud on the part of the societies.

For a quarter of a centry an unincorporated society known as the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church of the Kansas conference has operated in this state, collecting certain moneys to distribute among the needy and for the furtherance of religious enterprises in this state. It was a branch of a national organization.

Among the large contributors to the Kansas branch was Mrs. Fannie Murray of Lancaster. During her life she gave hundreds of dollars to the Kansas society. About a year before her death, Mrs. Murray executed a deed of trust concerning her property, and provided therein for an equal division of her property between the Woman's Home Missionary societies. However, before this money was finally disposed of according to Attorney General Dawson Mrs. F. N. Lynch, Mrs. Carrie Cope Mrs. E. L. Barnes, Mrs. George O Smith and Mrs. W. J. Oliver, all prominent club and society women of this city, organized a missionary society known as the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church of the Kansas conference This was on January 29, 1908.

The attorney general asserts that this company was organized in order to secure a charter, thus giving it a right to the funds left to the unincorporated society.

The Woman's Home Missionary society has had considerable experience in legal matters lately, and in dealing with state officials. It was during his address before the national convention of this society that Gov Stubbs was hissed recently in Wichita. It was an intra-society row that caused the filing of a $50,000 libel suit recently by Mrs. Cope, one member, against Mrs. Robinson, another member and the wife of a Detroit millionaire. And it is out of society troubles that this ouster suit comes inasmuch as the recent Wichita meeting brought the matter to Attorney General Dawson's attention. It is considered in Topeka as decidedly the big scandal of the season and the trial may bring to light a lot of interesting things.

MR. MORGAN IS HIGHLY INSULTED

New York, Oct. 30.—It was that defiant note of refusal to reorganize the United States Steel corporation that J. Pierpont Morgan signed a month ago that caused the administration to move against that corporation.

Ever since the supreme court handed down the Standard Oil and tobacco decisions, it is said, the president has been waiting for the United States Steel corporation to show some sign of moving in compliance with the new interpretation of the Sherman law. Nothing happened in that direction, and Mr. Taft then ordered the department of justice to proceed with a suit praying for immediate dissolution of the trust.

It is said in Wall street that Morgan is highly indignant over the proceedings of the last few days. A man very close to him is quoted as saying:

"I have never seen Mr. Morgan so indignant as he is now over this steel suit. He is in a perfect rage. He feels that the allegations made in the bill are gratuitous insults directed at him personally. He feels that Mr Wickersham went out of his way to attempt to besmirch his character."

RESTORE GRAY HAIR TO NATURAL COLOR

By Common Garden Sage, a Simple Remedy for Dandruff, Falling, Faded, Gray Hair.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of 75, while our mothers have white hair before they are 50. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy, and gradually restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days, on account of souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulhpur Hair Remedy the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair, but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow.

Get a bottle from your druggist today. Use it and see for yourself how quickly dandruff goes and gray hairs vanish.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agents, Koch Pharmacy.

the churches it seemed to be the object of each to pull down and hinder in every possible way the cherished beliefs and work of those differing in articles of faith. But down the years the spirit of the Lord Jesus Christ is so permeating the hearts of all who profess to love Him that it is now true that every church is helping every other church to accomplish its cherished plans and purposes.

Jesus is our example for daily living, in our church life and our daily personal affairs. He is our pattern. We do not find the exact copy of this perfect pattern in any one person or church, but parts of it are so well shown in characteristics of each that the nature and quality of the whole is clearly seen in the world and the will of God is being done.

How to Tell a Girl's Age.

Girls of a marriageable age do not like to tell how old they are; but you can find out by following the subjoined instructions, the young lady doing the figuring: Tell her to put down the number of the month in which she was born, then to multiply it by 2, then add 5, then to multiply it by 50, then to add her age, then to subtract 365, then to add 115, then to tell you the amount she has left. The two figures to the right will tell you her age, and the remainder the month of her birth. For example, the amount is 822; she is 22 years old and was born in the eighth month (August). Try it.

A bad back is always bad.
Bad at night when bedtime comes,
Just as bad in the morning.
Ever try Doan's Kidney Pills for it?
Know they cure backache—cure every kidney ill?

Read a case of it:

J. A. Murphy, East Fourth street, Maryville, Mo., says: "I suffered considerably from kidney and bladder trouble. In the morning upon arising my back was weak and stiff and there was a dull ache in my loins which at times handicapped me in doin gmy work. Whenever I caught cold it settled in my kidneys, and at such times the kidney secretions became unnatural. I was run down in health when I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a supply at Charles A. Love's drug store. Soon after beginning their use I found relief, and I am now free from kidney trouble. I occasionally take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills, finding that they serve to keep my kidneys in a normal condition."

TIME FOR TAFT TO SPEAK.

President Should Let Business World Know What It Has to Expect From Government.

"Nothing is more unfortunate for business than an air of mystery involving the purposes of the government in relation to it," says The Munsey editorially. "President Taft, or his attorney general, ought to take the country into their confidence, and let it know just as nearly as may be what it has to expect from them.

"When the Standard Oil and tobacco trust decisions were being awaited by the country, business was depressed because of uncertainty. When these decisions came, although they were antagonistic to the corporations involved, every index of business tendency showed a buoyant disposition. Anything was better than uncertainty.

"To sleuth around with an impressive aspect of mystery, administering ten parts of scare to one part of punishment, is about the worst thing that could happen. Business is no criminal, even if there are some criminals in business. Business ought not to be destroyed in the hope of catching the malefactors in the wreckage.

PANIC PREVAILS AMONG MANCHUS

People Leaving Chinese Capital in Droves, Fearing Massacre.

AMERICANS REPORTED WOUNDED

Legation Orders Women and Children to the Coast—Price of Provisions Still Rising—Situation Critical.

Pekin, Oct. 30.—The situation in Pekin is becoming worse. A panic prevails among the Manchus. The Manchu women are adopting Chinese dress. Some of them are attempting to make their feet appear smaller by peculiarly constructed shoes. The trains that are leaving the capital are drawn by two engines, so heavily are they loaded. The people sit on top of their household belongings. Officials are seeking asylum for their wives and children among the foreigners.

Prior to the revolution the newspapers frequently cried out against the presence of foreign soldiers. But the natives now are fleeing to them for shelter.

The danger is from a sudden attack against the throne or against the officials that might precipitate the threatened massacre by the Manchus. Race feeling is becoming intensified.

The price of provisions still is rising. A large number of foreigners are entering the legation quarter. The legation guards are preparing for emergencies. The Americans have sandbags piled on the corner wall, which is now under a strong guard. Movements of the Manchu troops through the city gates occur silently after nightfall to prevent excitement among the population.

The American legation has issued orders that the women and children living along the Pekin-Hankow railway and also in the country to the west of the line shall proceed as soon as possible to the coast. The American consul general at Hankow, Roger S. Greene, reports that an American, A. H. Kepler, has been wounded in the fighting around that city.

Dr. Jackson, the American president of Boone university of Wu Chang, was wounded in the recent fighting at Hankow. The insurgents are spending money freely, having sold all the government supplies at ridiculously low prices.

Consular reports from Nanking are pessimistic. The new troops fear an attack by the old troops and art clamoring for ammunition, which the viceroy refuses to give them. They were ordered to leave the city, but declined. The viceroy of Kiang Su has chartered the British steamer Pei Ching, which lies in the river, presumably to take the viceroy if necessary.

Six thousand of the Twentieth division at Lan Chau have refused to entrain for Hankow. Instead they sent a memorial to Pekin asking for the immediate granting of a constitution.

FINDS WORK FOR THE NEEDY

STATE AGENCY FINDS PLACES FOR THOUSANDS.

Missouri Law May be Changed to Establish Other Free Employment Bureaus.

Jefferson City, Oct. 30.—What Missouri is doing for its unemployed is set forth in a bulletin just issued by Austin W. Biggs, commissioner of the state bureau of labor statistics. The bulletin is a statement of the work of the free employment bureaus in St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph from June 16, 1911, the date upon which the present commissioner took charge of the labor bureau, to September 30, the end of the fiscal year.

According to reports made by J. T. Smith, superintendent of the St. Louis free employment office, C. J. Tompkins, superintendent of the Kansas City office and Jesse E. Heiser, superintendent of the St. Joseph office, employment was furnished to 3,144 persons, of whom 2,775 were men and 369 women. Not one cent was paid out by any person for whom a position was secured. The state finds the cost of maintaining the free employment offices to be money well spent.

There were applications for 4,710 men and 639 women. As a rule the class of applicants for work was of a high order.

So successful has been the work of the free employment bureau in St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph that Commissioner Biggs is anxious that the law be changed to permit the bureau of labor statistics to establish free employment offices in Springfield, Hannibal, Joplin, Sedalia and other large manufacturing towns of the state. He believes that the money necessary to maintain these offices would well repay Missouri in the good it would do in getting work for the thousands of workers who are unemployed from time to time and who are desirous of remaining in the state.

VILES LEAVES CENSUS BUREAU

Notoriety Gained by Missourian Over Second Marriage Causes His Resignation.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Secretary Nagel of the department of commerce and labor has accepted the resignation of Voler V. Viles, a Missourian, as chief clerk of the census bureau, to take effect immediately. William A. Hathaway expert chief of the agricultural division of the bureau, will take the place of Mr. Viles, and William J. Barrows, also a Missourian, will succeed Mr. Hathaway.

The resignation of Mr. Viles was formal and brief but no more so than was Mr. White's acceptance. No reason is announced, but it is known that Mr. Viles' position had become unbearable to him on account of the notoriety he gained last spring when he married Mrs. Beulah Padden at Springfield, Mo. Mrs. Padden was a hotel waitress. She first met her husband when he went to his home near Springfield with the body of his dead wife. They were married a few days later.

D. Lankford, representing the state banking board, against E. J. Maire of Lima, O. Lankford has sued Maire for $2,500, asserting that when the Columbia failed he was a stockholder to that extent in the bank.
